About the Local Area of Cowes

Cowes is a gateway town for the Isle of Wight.

Travellers between Southampton and Cowes are served by a high speed catamaran passenger ferry, known as the Red Jet, making commuting very easy and fast!

Major present-day employers include BAE Systems Integrated System Technologies (Insyte), Newport Road, Cowes; and GKN Aerospace in East Cowes.

There's nowhere better than Cowes for sailing and water activities. This is the home of Cowes Week, the oldest and biggest sailing regatta in the world!

Cowes is a vibrant, exciting place at any time, with sporting and cultural events throughout the year. It's a sophisticated resort you won't want to miss.

In the wider-area, there is beautiful countryside, including a great beach at Gurnard, rolling farmland, and great walks through Parkhurst forest.

Cowes Enterprise College, Lanes End Primary and Gurnard Primary are three of the highest rated schools on the Island, and are conveniently located for the school run.

Practice Profile

There is a team of 3 full time GPs supported whole heartedly by a full quota of nursing staff.

The Practice is admin light with a great team managing the workflow. The Patient Advisers (reception staff) are all trained to navigate patients to the appropriate clinician, allowing GPs precious time with patients who really need their expertise.

East Cowes Medical is a family-friendly Practice, who can offer flexibility by way of early/late starts and early/late finishes to fit in with school drop offs, compacted days etc. The flexibility on offer is a true representation of the great morale amongst the staff.

As well as being able to provide a traditional Salaried GP opportunity, the surgery are also able to offer a GP partnership position with no mass buy in if this would suit your working specifics. The practice is also an accredited GP training practice.

GPs follow a traditional 3 hour working AM & PM Surgery too. ANP's also do all home visits. The practice also run specialist clinics from the premises making developing a specialist interest a real possibility.

CQC have rated East Cowes Medical Centre 'GOOD' overall meaning the surgery is going from strength to strength.
